

Strathmoor Presbyterian Church
Position Description for Seminary Intern

Strathmoor Presbyterian Church desires a seminary intern who seeks to serve God with energy, enthusiasm, imagination and dedication at the corner of Bardstown Road and Hawthorne Avenue in Louisville, KY.

We hope our seminary intern will be immersed in the life of our small congregation and experience a wide range of opportunities for growth as he or she develops their pastoral identity and skills.

Worship :

- Preaching 4-6 times during the year
- Leading worship
- Developing the liturgy for worship services
- Preschool Chapel

Christian Education:

- Teaching the Sunday School Class
- Working with pastor to develop Spring/Lenten Series

Pastoral Care:

- Visitation to the Homebound

Mission:

- Work with mission commission and its projects like Christmas Boxes, Gifts of Hope, Kids Café

Session:

- Attend Session Meetings and help co-moderate one meeting

Strathmoor offers our intern the opportunity to be involved in all aspects of parish ministry and the flexibility to move with the Spirit as it leads. We hope that you might consider serving with us as we strive to live our lives serving God.
