WELCOME ANDREA STEVENS

Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary is pleased to welcome Andrea Stevens to the Institutional Advancement team as the new Director of Annual Giving and Alum Relations.

In her role, Andrea is responsible for organizing and managing all aspects of annual giving to the Seminary. She also coordinates and conducts both personal and direct marketing solicitations of alums, friends of the seminary, and congregations to ensure the continued growth of the Annual Fund in both dollars and donors. Further, Andrea develops and manages a comprehensive alum relations program to encourage continued long-term engagement with the Seminary community.

Furlough Home Residents | August – January 2020

Please share this information with your church. Furlough Home residents can be a valuable resource for your church programs. You might ask a resident to fill your pulpit; to speak to your youth groups, church school class, or women's/men's groups; to give a "minute for mission" during church services; or to speak at a church potluck or other event

Apartment #1 | César Carhuachín 6/19/19 to 1/2020

César Carhuachín teaches Bible and Theology at the Reformed University of Colombia, the country's first Protestant university. The School of Theology stresses the study of the Bible in its original languages and seeks to integrate the context of Colombian society into all theological study. Today students from various Protestant traditions study at the school. César's teachings focus on the gospel of peace and Jesus Christ's call for us to be peacemakers. He is committed to sharing the gospel with the poor and with victims of violence. In addition to teaching, César serves as editor of Palabra y Vida, a publication of the theology program. He most frequently serves at Comunidad Del Camino Presbyterian Church in Barranquilla, which meets in the school's chapel. Contact him at cesar.carhuachin@pcusa.org.

Apartment #2 | Michael Parker 6/20/19 to 9/15/19

Michael Parker has been an Associate for Ecumenical Partnerships and has served in Egypt since 2012 at the invitation of the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Cairo. He is a Presbyterian teaching elder and Director of Graduate Studies as well as a professor of Church History at the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Cairo (ETSC), Egypt. ETSC is a seminary of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Egypt. The school, founded in 1863 by U.S. Presbyterians, has its main campus in Cairo and two branch campuses, one in Alexandria and the other in Minya, is the largest Christian seminary in the Middle East. Contact him at michael.parker@pcusa.org.

Apartment #3 | Keith and Gail McKinley with daughters Rachel and Samantha 6/24/19 to 8/28/19

Keith McKinley serves as the Innovation Specialist for the IMB's Southeast Asian Peoples Affinity in Indonesia. His job is to assist teams to find solutions for leadership, followership, teaming, and strategy within Southeast Asia. He can be reached at 62 81 1234 915 or 502.496.3848.

Apartment #3 | Mark Hare and Jenny Bent

9/1/19 to 12/31/19

Mark and Jenny are mission co-workers in Haiti and the Dominican Republic serving with Famer's Movement of Papaye (MPP) and the Evangelical Dominican Church. They have 2 children, Keila and Annika. Mark and Jenny's ministry focuses on Haitians living in the Dominican Republic as well as Dominicans of Haitian descent. Mark and Jenny have developed close friendships in Batey Siete and Barahona, where there is a very large community of immigrant Haitians. Jenny and Mark want to be witnesses for reconciliation. Jenny says, "My vision is that our Dominican neighbors, friends, and colleagues will recognize the inherent dignity of Haitians, and that our Haitian friends and colleagues will recognize the inherent dignity of Dominicans." Contact them at mark.hare@pcusa.org and jenny.bent@pcusa.org.

Apartment #4 | JoElla Holman

8/1/19 to 10/15/19

As regional liaison for the Caribbean, Jo Ella Holman's ministry focuses on churches in Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Jamaica and the Cayman Islands, Curacao, Grenada and Trinidad, and Tobago. Jo Ella also works with PC(USA) congregations and presbyteries in the United States involved in partnerships with Christians in the Caribbean. She can be reached at joella.holman@pcusa.org.

Apartment #4 | Josey Saez-Acevedo and

12/2019 to 1/2020

David has about a decade of experience teaching seminary students, while Josey has spent nearly a dozen years as a Christian educator in congregations. David says they go to Cuba seeking to "engage, equip, and inform church leaders in ministry grounded in a healthy biblical and theological foundation." They grew up in Puerto Rico and began their higher education studies there. Their background helps them as they work in Cuba. "Our sense of call to Cuba gives us the opportunity to teach and learn together in a setting of cultural and ethnic affinities we share," Josey says. The couple is optimistic about the future of the Cuban church. Prior to entering mission service, David served for four years as pastor of Iglesia Presbiteriana Hispana Emmanuel in Claremont, California. From 2000 to 2009, he was director of academic services and associate professor of New Testament at San Francisco Theological Seminary's Southern California campus. He has also been director of the Hispanic Ministries Program at McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago and pastor of Ceiba Baja Presbyterian Church in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico. Josey came to mission service after serving for seven years as director of children's ministry at La Verne Heights Presbyterian Church in La Verne, California. From 2003 to 2007, she was interim director of Christian education for children and family ministry at Claremont Presbyterian Church in Claremont, California. She also has worked as a database manager, a college admissions office assistant and a preschool teacher.
