Mondays, October 29 & November 5
11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
McAtee A

The Gender and Ministry Committee will be hosting a book discussion on College Hookup Culture and Christian Ethics written by the 2018 Caldwell Lecturer Jennifer Beste. Join us on October 29 and November 5 in McAtee A from 11:30-12:30. Reading the book beforehand is not required.

Lunch provided! Please email Teresa Larson (teresa.larson@my.lpts.edu) to RSVP.

Want a free copy of the book? Be one of the first ten people to email Teresa and commit to reading the book and attending the discussions!

Spooktacular Bonfire

Wednesday, October 31
7:30-10:30 p.m.

In the Valley at the Fire Circle
There will be s'mores!

Students, staff, faculty, and families are all invited. Donna Phillips and her friend, Georgie Riddell, will be telling stories (most of which are original) from 7:30-8:30 p.m.

While an RSVP is not required, it would help to know how many s'mores to have on hand. Email Gina Meester (gina.meester@my.lpts.edu) with your reservation or with questions.

Writing Strong Thesis Statements

The most important thing to remember about a thesis statement is that it states the main idea or main claim of your paper (called an argument). This main claim/argument drives the analysis you write in the body of your paper.

Answer these questions: What are you writing about? What are you trying to convince your reader? Try to answer the questions in one sentence. This is a draft of your thesis statement.

Remember that this one statement is important because the reader decides to continue reading because of it. Therefore, you need to make sure that your sentence expresses the most important claim about your topic.

You should always have at least a draft of your thesis statement before you start to write. This directs your composing. Often, after you have written the entire paper, you will want to return to the thesis statement and revise it.

A good thesis

- is unique
- is specific
- takes a stand—makes a claim, expresses an opinion, tells the reader what you think (this is an important step in thinking and writing critically)
- expresses one major idea
- is a complete sentence

A thesis is NOT an announcement of your subject. A thesis expresses a claim, perspective, insight, or opinion. It reveals a specific attitude about your subject.

Announcement

The Japanese are successful in selling cars to foreign markets.

LPTS is a good seminary.

Calvin's account of grace is far more compelling than Luther's.

Thesis Statement

The Japanese sell many cars to foreign markets because they know the needs of those markets.

LPTS is an excellent seminary because its renowned writing center helps students succeed.

Calvin's account of grace offers hope to people who have been undone by the world.

Notice that the thesis statements include what is stated in the announcement, but they are unique. They tell the reader what claim or stand you are supporting/refuting regarding your topic.

Once you've constructed your thesis, the paper will unfold smoothly. The supporting paragraphs or pages will support and explain the claim you made or the opinion you express in your thesis.

From the Facilities Department

WEATHER CHANGES:

This time of year always begs the question, "When are we going to turn on the heat?" During these seasonal changes (spring to summer, summer to fall) we are always going to encounter uncomfortable days because of the type of heating and air conditioning systems we have on campus. Most buildings can only heat or cool, not both at the same time (these include White, Heuser, Burnam, Love/Sherrill, Caldwell Chapel, Nelson, Winn Center, White Library and Schlegel).

Typically we prepare to turn on the heat around October 15, but since we are still having warm days, we continue to monitor the weather. Once we have a 10-day stretch of evening lows below 40° we will make the decision to turn on the heat in all buildings on campus. We find this works best for most people on campus. We will notify the community when we decide to turn the heat on.

BIKE SHED CLEAN-UP:

The Facilities Department will be doing the semi-annual cleaning of the bike shed. If you own a bike, please use the tags on the last page to tag your bikes, scooters, etc. before noon on Wednesday, October 24. Any items that are not tagged will be brought to the Facilities Department where they will remain for approximately 48 hours. Anyone who needs to claim their bike can come to the Facilities Department during that time to retrieve it. After the 48-hour period, bikes will be donated to charity.

Tags may be copied from the back page of the Seminary Times or picked up at the Facilities Department. Please tape one of the tags to any bike that you own. If you know of anyone who is out of town and may not receive this message, please call Facilities at ext. 387 to let us know. Thanks for your help!

REMINDER: BICYCLES ARE TO BE STORED IN THE BIKE SHED OR INSIDE EACH RESIDENT'S APARTMENT ONLY. THEY ARE NOT TO BE LEFT OUTSIDE IN WALKWAYS, UNDER STAIRS, OR EGRESS PATHS.

LPTS Pilgrims Fundraiser

The LPTS Pilgrims are going to Cuba during J-Term 2019. In an effort to raise funds to offset the cost we are providing an opportunity to purchase t-shirts.

Follow the link to the Custom Ink website where you will be able to choose a long sleeve option for $30 or a short sleeve option for $25. Colors available are purple, black and royal blue. Please share the link on all your social media ie Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc. By facilitating a purchase you will help an LPTS Pilgrim Build Bridges with our fellow seminarians in Cuba.

The campaign will run now through November 7. Our goal is to sell 50 shirts.

Thank you in advance for your help with this effort.

REHAB Introductions and Information

The Residential Housing Advisory Board, which is known as R.E.H.A.B was created and established in 2006. Its purpose is to facilitate conversation among residents and mediate/advocate with administration concerning housing issues. Our responsibility is to help nurture and sustain this community. We are also the organization that is in charge of the Tri-C space located between Love and Sherrill. If you would like to rent this space (it's FREE), please contact me (Shelby Oda) with the details! If you have any questions or concerns, I want to invite you to speak to your building representative (listed below) or you can contact me directly. We hope to make this community fun, functional, and adaptable.

The following are the 2018 building representatives and would like encourage you to reach out to these folks if you have any concerns/questions about the living community:

Seminary Hall: Megan Berry and Ervina Desaussure

White Hall: Neil DeAtley

Heuser: Shelby Oda and Megan Nibert

Sherill/Love: Kelsey Mitchell

Burnam: Rachel Pott-Wells, Jenny Hockenberry, and Annica Gage

We are always seeking for more individuals to join the board who are currently living on campus, if you are interested, please reach out to me or any of the building representatives who can get you connected.

In order to get to know one another in the community and the new REHAB representatives, I would like to invite you all to Thursdays Together happening on Oct. 25 at 7:30 p.m. Please come and join in community, learn about REHAB, and meet the new members.

Thank you so much,
Shelby Oda (shelby.oda@my.lpts.edu)
Chair of REHAB
