T & T Clark Jesus Library Guide

T&T Clark Jesus Library, part of Theology and Religion Online, offers students and scholars of religion and biblical studies core resources for studying the life of Jesus and his impact in history and culture. The resource contains a brand-new reference work on the Reception of Jesus in the First Three Centuries as well as topical articles commissioned exclusively for the resource, written by leading academics. An editorial board of experts led by editor-in-chief Chris Keith (St. Mary's University Twickenham) has worked to curate the content and these experts contribute to our exclusive audio interviews on important topics and major publications.
